John 20: 19-23

The presence of the Holy Spirit is the keystone of all our hopes.

- John Nelson Darby

There is a story about an eagle. A hunter found an eagle's egg in a forest. He took the egg home and hatched it along with the other chicken eggs. This eaglet started growing up with the other chicks. It started eating white ants and little worms, pecking and hopping here and there like the other chicks. But it never learned to fly like an eagle. One day, the eagle, now grown old, saw an eagle majestically soaring high in the sky. Spellbound, the eagle asked, "What is that?" "That's the king of the birds, the eagle," said his neighbour. "He belongs to the sky. We belong to the earth—we are chickens." So, the eagle lived and died a chicken for that's what he thought he was. – Song of the Bird

We are like that eaglet helplessly admiring the power in others when we ourselves possess that power. Very often we end up in defeat, frustration and failure because we are ignorant of the power God has given us through His Spirit. Today's feast invites us to recognise the gift of the Holy Spirit given to us. Archbishop Romero once said that "the church will be fair to see, perennially young, attractive in every age, as long as she is faithful to the Spirit that floods her. And the church in turn reflects the Spirit through her communities, through her pastors, through her very life". The Spirit of God is at work not simply in the air, not simply in the fire and not simply on the tongues. The Spirit is at work in human hearts and minds, and souls. The Spirit is at work in the places the Spirit chooses to take up residence. The Spirit is at work in the waters of the baptismal font and in the laying on of hands and the anointing with the blessed oil.

The Spirit is at work in common, ordinary ways in common ordinary people. The Spirit functions as fruit-producer in our lives. When He indwells us, He begins the work of harvesting His fruit in our lives—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23). These are the products of the Spirit's presence in our lives. The entire world is waging a war against the tiny coronavirus and all its impacts on the lives of the people. The waves of this pandemic, besides swallowing many lives, have washed away the dreams and hopes of millions of people and placed them in a precarious situation. As we strive to get through this illness, the Spirit of God replaces our fear with courage and hope. At the same time, it beckons us to abide by the most essential directives of physical distancing and be responsible for the wellbeing of everyone. The Spirit of God enables us to let go of our anger, resentments and anxiety and accept others with a spirit of forgiveness. The Spirit of God is at work in a husband or a wife who chooses to remain faithful to the other spouse in spite of the temptations to drift and the avalanche of conflicts resulting in hurts and pains. At the same time, the Spirit of God empowers us to stand for what is just and right, and defend the cause of the poor and vulnerable. The Spirit of God strengthens us to free ourselves of the bad habits and behavioural patterns and realigns our lives in the immortal values of Jesus. The Spirit of God challenges the Y-generation to find courage to stand up to friends or foes and say categorical NO to drugs, immoral activities and bullying others. The Spirit of God functions as a navigator of our lives directing us in the WAY of Jesus. Thus, the Spirit of God makes us new people with a new message.

The words of Romero resonate the words of the gospel, that the Pentecost is not just one day, but every day. The Spirit of God, who was breathed into the first disciples, still breathes in all who believe and inhale the grace and power that are Jesus' living legacy. As breath is to life, the Spirit is to the Church. Without the Spirit the Church is a field of dry, dead bones. Fulton J. Sheen said about the Church, "Even though we are God's chosen people, we often behave more like God's frozen people—frozen in our prayer life, frozen in the way we relate with one another, frozen in the way we celebrate our faith." Today is a great day to ask the Holy Spirit to rekindle in us the spirit of new life and enthusiasm, the fire of God's love. Let us repeat Cardinal Newman's favourite little prayer, "Come Holy Spirit".

Yes, the Spirit is at work, not simply in the air, not simply in the fire, and not simply on the tongues.

God's blessings, Fr. Vince

First Reading (Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11)

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 103: 1. 24. 29-31. 34. R. v.30)

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your riches. (R.)
2. You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)
3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever! May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

Second Reading (1 Corinthians 12: 3-7, 12-13)

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.

Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel (John 20: 19-23)

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit.

For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven:

For those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

PLEASE TAKE NOTE OF THESE IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS: FROM 1st JUNE 2020

NO CHANGE:

- *Catholics are dispensed from their obligation of attending Sunday Mass.
- *Saturday Vigil and Sunday 10am Masses will be livestreamed on Facebook.
- *If you are unwell, you must stay home.
- *Social distancing rules of 4sqm per person still apply.
- *Good hand hygiene must be observed.
- *Holy Communion can only be received by hand.

CHANGES TO TAKE PLACE:

- *We are now allowed to have 50 attendees at each Mass.
- *Weekday Masses (Tues-Fri at 9:15) will NO LONGER be livestreamed.

TEAR AUSTRALIA

Reconciliation programs from TEAR Australia which is a non-denominational Christian organisation helping communities end poverty, challenge injustice and build a sustainable future. TEAR is working towards a more just and compassionate world where everyone has the opportunity to experience fullness of life. In 1971 our organisation emerged with a prophetic imagination to inspire and enable Australian Christians to make a biblically-shaped response to poverty and injustice across the world. Today, TEAR Australia lives out that vision as a powerful catalyst for global transformation. In communities once burdened by poverty, the outcomes are seen in the flourishing of human potential - God's life lived to the full.
