“The providence of God is the way in which He governs everything wisely, first for the glory of His own Name, and second for the ultimate blessing of His children”

- Sinclair Ferguson

Fallen into the trap of fear and anxiety of our daily concerns and especially of the impacts of COVID19, we may probably fail to realize God’s caring for us. We are much worried about what is going to happen tomorrow, and for a few years to come, even after the COVID19. This worry can concern us regarding all parts of our lives - relationships, emotions, material needs, spiritual strength, etc. When is the virus going to have its upper hand? Only God knows!

In our readings today, we hear much about the reverse side of the coin. We meet someone who has the power to give us food, all the food we would want and no money needed. “Though you have no money, come! Listen to me and you will have good things to eat” – Isaiah 55: 1. This was the invitation to the people of Israel. Matthew’s story tells us that the heavenly banquet is for anyone and everyone. “They all ate and were satisfied.” Psalm 145 assures us four times that God loves and satisfies all people. God is near to all of us. Paul shares his confidence that nothing will separate us from that love. This love is proven in the abundance of food and drink God provides for all. This abundance is not only for all humans; it is for all God’s creatures.

In the midst of all the starvation, loss of human lives, protests against the deep grained inequalities, strategic exclusion of the groups of people based on racial and ethnic prejudices and the wild animals losing their habitat, God is calling us, “Come to me heedfully. Listen that you may have light.” He is inviting us to place our complete trust in His providence and generosity and, with His power, to care for one another with love and patience.

When confronted by his disciples with the need to feed the crowds, Jesus first challenged them to give something from what they had. The instant reaction of the disciples was ‘helplessness’... “we have nothing” they said. At the same time, believing in the words of Jesus, they managed to scrape together a few pieces of bread and fish - and with that Jesus worked a miracle. Whatever pieces of bread and fish we have and are willing to give for the good of others, God can take and transform them into something good, healing and affirming. Like the disciples, we might heed a call to be God’s instruments in finding ways to see that more of God’s creatures share in the abundance that God has created in the heavenly banquet and that of the earth. Let us not forget that God is ultimately the one taking care of us and is the one most attentive to our every need. Let us renew our faith in God who is closer to us than we are to ourselves. An inspirational thought from Fr Pat:

“A basketball in my hands is worth about $19. A basketball in Michael Jordan's hands is worth about $33 million. It depends whose hands it's in.

A baseball in my hands is worth about $6. A baseball in Mark McGuire's hands is worth $19 million. It depends whose hands it's in.

A tennis racket is useless in my hands. A tennis racket in Pete Sampras' hands is a Wimbledon Championship. It depends whose hands it's in.

A rod in my hands will keep away a wild animal. A rod in Moses' hands will part the mighty sea. It depends whose hands it's in.

A sling shot in my hands is a kid's toy. A sling shot in David's hand is a mighty weapon. It depends whose hands it's in.

Cont...

Two fish and 5 loaves of bread in my hands is a couple of fish sandwiches. Two fish and 5 loaves of bread in God's hands will feed thousands. It depends whose hands it's in.

Nails in my hands might produce a birdhouse. Nails in Jesus Christ's hands will produce salvation for the entire world. It depends whose hands it's in. As you see now, it depends whose hands it's in.

So, we can put our concerns, our worries, our fears, our hopes, our dreams, our families, and our relationships in God's hands because -- It depends whose hands they're in".

God's blessings

Fr. Vince

Prayer during the Coronavirus Pandemic

Lord Jesus Christ, our true healer, be merciful to us and bring us your aid in these troubled times. Heal all our sickness and every affliction of your people, especially this pandemic.

We place in your gentle Heart the elderly, the frail, people with disabilities, children, young people and families, our indigenous peoples, those who are poor, lonely and isolated. As you walk with us, free them from fear, and give them patience and hope together with our loving care.

Enlighten the minds of women and men of medical science who are working to find a solution to this viral infection. Guide their research and help them discover what you provide in creation, sure ways of control, protection and healing. Strengthen them in their tiring work and enrich in them the virtue of hope.

Mother of mercy and compassion, look kindly on your children who seek your help and consolation in these times. Pray for our protection and healing, for patience, perseverance in suffering, and conformity to God's Will.

Amen!

JUST TO LAUGH

Late one night, a preacher was driving on a country road and had a wreck. A farmer stopped and said, "Sir, are you okay?" The preacher said, "Yes, I had the Lord riding with me." The farmer said, "Well, you better let him ride with me, because you're gonna kill him."

One night a lady came home from her weekly prayer meeting, found she was being robbed, and she shouted out, "Acts 2:38: 'Repent & be baptized & your sins will be forgiven.'" The robber quickly gave up & the lady rang the police. While handcuffing the criminal, a policeman said, "Gee mate, you gave up pretty easily. How come you gave up so quickly?" The robber said, "She said she had an axe and two 38's!"
