“Epiphanies awaken the soul”

— Adrienne Posey

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Happy New Year! We have stepped into the new year 2021 with the hope that the spread of the virus will end and that the entire world will fare well. The pandemic has exposed the dark realities of racism, economic disparity, terrorism, inequality, etc. God invites us to embrace a positive outlook on life despite the months of misery that everyone has faced in varying degrees. With steadfastness and determination, we have to continue our lives against such odds. Like the magi, in the gospel this Sunday, our journey should continue in a different direction (as shown by God) with renewed vigour and hope.

The Feast of the ‘Epiphany of the Lord’ is the feast of manifestation. On this day, we celebrate the coming of the mysterious strangers from across the desert who had been following heavenly direction and who finally arrived at the source of the brilliance they had seen.

The Epiphany can be looked on as a symbol for our pilgrimage through life to Christ. The feast invites us to see ourselves as images of the Magi, a people on a journey to Christ. Today’s Gospel also tells us the story of the Magi’s encounter with the evil King Herod. This encounter symbolizes three reactions to Jesus’ birth: hatred, indifference, and adoration; a) A group of people headed by Herod planned to destroy Jesus; b) Another group, composed of priests and scribes, ignored Jesus; c) The members of a third group — shepherds and the magi — adored Jesus and offered themselves to Him.

The Jewish people represent a group of individuals who are called by God, but remain indifferent. They do not go in search of Christ, because they await a different and more ‘worldly’ Messiah, or fear that in finding Him, they may be compelled to change their ways, and they are not ready to be transformed, or to give up their personal comforts and desires.

Herod represents a second group of persons, the kind who seek Christ, not to honour Him, but to persecute Him, because He is a threat to their authority.

The Magi, on the other hand, represent disciples who accept God’s call, persevere in following the “star” and, on finding Christ, offer the gift of themselves to Him in love and reverence.

To which group do we belong? Are we at times apathetic like the chief priests and scribes, who are unwilling to follow God’s will? Or, like Herod, do we at times abuse our authority and take advantage of community or family members for personal gain? Or are we like the Magi who seek and find Christ, honour and pay homage to Him with our life?

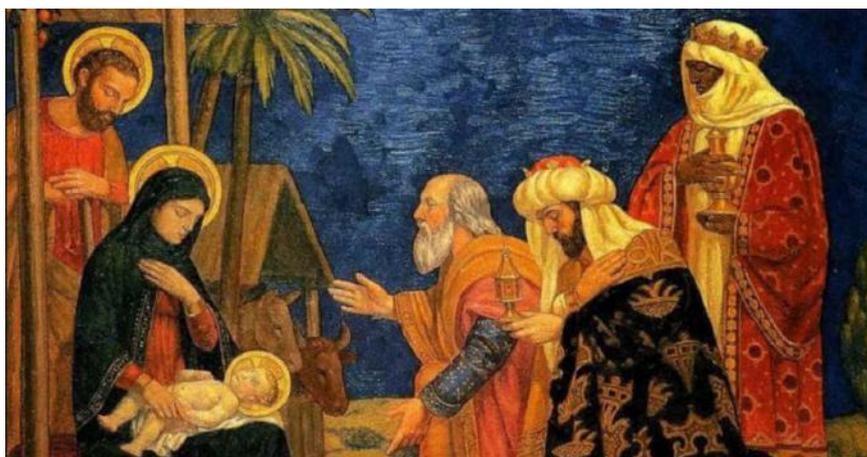

As disciples in community, we should respond to the manifestation and coming of Christ Jesus into the world and into our lives with humble reverence, giving ourselves in willing service to Christ and to our fellowmen. Our life witness should be a manifestation to others of God’s love for us and our love for Him. Like the “star at its rising” that the Magi saw and followed, our lives should be examples that lead others, especially unbelievers, to seek, find, and worship Christ Jesus!

We do not have to look far and wide for proofs of our Lord Jesus’ manifestation. He shows Himself to us through, and in other people; our parents who gave us life, our brethren in and out of community who love us, and even in our enemies who help us realize that away from God, no goodness is possible. Jesus also makes Himself known to us through the events in our life, whether pleasant or distressing, and through the testimonies and influence of God-sent persons. (Source duly acknowledged)

We pray this Sunday, in person or online, for clear minds, courageous hearts and the perseverance to stay on the path Jesus has manifested to us: the way of perseverance, care for one another’s wellbeing, social responsibility and reaching out to the vulnerable and the elderly. If his is the path we follow, we too will shine in the darkness and be guides to others, to help them find their way home to a land and a people of light bearers.

God’s blessings,

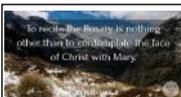

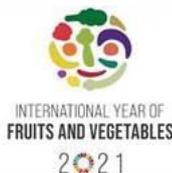

Fr. Vince

Social Justice @ St Mads

Peace Day theme this year is 'A Culture of Care as a Path to Peace.' A culture of care is "a way to combat the culture of indifference, waste and confrontation so prevalent in our time." World Day of Peace is observed in the Church on January 1, the feast day for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. This year, it is the International Year of Fruit and Vegetables, a time to consider how food systems contribute to society, the economy and environmental sustainability.

Come and pray the rosary after Morning Mass on Thursdays!

WHY CAN'T WE TRY THIS IN THE NEW YEAR?

Today at work this elderly lady asked me if I could help walk her to her car. I told her I would help her. She instantly grabbed hold of my arm. She could not walk fast and after every few steps she had to take a little break. She made conversation with me and was talking about music. I mentioned to her that I went to school for music and she started talking about Tschaikovsky and other composers with me. Our whole walk took about 10 minutes in total.

She told me she doesn't get to talk to people much and it was nice to be able to have a conversation with someone. She was so excited and her face lit up with joy. When we reached her car she thanked me so much and said she wishes she could take me home to continue our conversation.

You never know how such a small gesture as simple as talking can make someone's day.

Timone Holliman

This little fella was having a tough morning and fell out on the floor.

I saw his mother step back and look. She stated this is how he has been expressing himself lately.

I decided to get on his level and talk to him.

He started to cry so I wiped his tears and told him it will be ok.

As an adult, sometimes all we want is one person to stop, get on our level and maybe wipe our tears.

These children are entitled to bad days just as us, so give them that moment to bring it together. Get on someone's level today and make them smile!

Spread PEACE and LOVE you might be that person that gives them hope!

St John Neumann

Feast Day: 5th January

Perhaps because the United States

got a later start in the history of the world, it has relatively few canonized saints, but their number is increasing.

John Neumann was born in what is now the Czech Republic. After studying in Prague, he came to New York at 25 and was ordained a priest. He did missionary work in New York until he was 29, when he joined the Redemptorists and became its first member to profess vows in the United States. He continued missionary work in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, where he became popular with the Germans.

At 41, as bishop of Philadelphia, he organized the parochial school system into a diocesan one, increasing the number of pupils almost twentyfold within a short time.

Gifted with outstanding organizing ability,
he drew into the city many teaching communities of sisters and the Christian Brothers. During his brief assignment as vice provincial for the Redemptorists, he placed them in the forefront of the parochial movement.

Well-known for his holiness and learning,
spiritual writing and preaching, on October 13, 1963, John Neumann became the first American bishop to be beatified.
Canonized in 1977, he is buried in St.
Peter the Apostle Church in Philadelphia.
