In faith there is enough light for those who want to believe and enough shadows to blind those who don't - Blaise Pascal

Today's first reading makes us think of the current situation we are in. The Babylon-exiled Jewish people were allowed to return to Jerusalem by the Persian King Cyrus. As they came back to Jerusalem, they faced the task of rebuilding the temple. As the restrictions are eased and we see our faithful returning to Mass, it is great indeed and we thank God! We need to rebuild our parish community as we begin to recover from the devastation of the pandemic. We have just commenced preparing our children for the Sacrament of Confirmation which I see vital in our rebuilding effort. Kindly keep them in your fervent prayers that they may be enlightened and empowered by the Holy Spirit. A few brothers and sisters will receive the Easter Sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. This Sunday, they receive their Second Scrutiny which is all about release from anything that has enslaved them from experiencing the true love and joy of life. Together with them, we experience the goodness of God. Lent is a gracious time to rebuild our individual lives; our families and communities in the love and light of Jesus Christ. May we never forget that we are the "image and likeness of God"!

A little wave was bobbing along in the ocean, having a grand old time. He's enjoying the wind and the fresh air until he notices the other waves in front of him, crashing against the shore. "My God, this is terrible," the wave says. "Look what's going to happen to me!" Then along comes another wave. It sees the first wave, looking grim, and it says to him, "Why do you look so sad?" The first wave says, "You don't understand! We're all going to crash! All of us waves are going to be nothing! Isn't this terrible?" The second wave says, "No, YOU don't understand. You're not a wave; you're part of the ocean."

"In his late-night conversation with the Pharisee Nicodemus, Jesus presents a very different picture of God — and of ourselves. Jesus reveals to Nicodemus a God of life and restoration, a God who seeks not our punishment or humiliation but our healing and reconciliation with him and with one another. The God Jesus revealed is not the God of condemnation and destruction but the God of forgiveness, mercy and compassion. And that should help us re-imagine ourselves: that, created in God's love, we are more than the superficialities of appearance and assets, of wit and social graces. In the light of his Christ, we come to realize the good in ourselves that we often do not see; in that light, we find joy and reason to be grateful for the good that others bring to our lives. As Jesus explains to Nicodemus, God has created us as an extension of himself: from the moment of our creation, his life and love are part of our very being. In our embracing of his Spirit of justice and mercy, in our work to re-make our world in his dream of compassion and peace, the love in which we were created transforms our lives and the lives of those we love and who love us into the very light and love of God" (A Sampler Connections)

Once upon a time, 5 lamps burning in a home had been speaking amongst themselves. The first lamp stated – "People of my light have no appreciation even after burning so much, then it would be better that I be extinguished" and that lamp was extinguished. That lamp was an emblem of enthusiasm. After a while, the second lamp, an image of peace, was extinguished by the unrest being unfolded through individuals. Now it was the flip of the third lamp of braveness, his braveness was additionally answered and he too was extinguished.

Seeing the situation of enthusiasm, peace and braveness, the fourth lamp symbolizing prosperity was extinguished. Now the fifth lamp, which was the youngest, lit the lights alone. There was a boy inside a home. Seeing the burning lamp, he began dancing fortunately after which with one lamp, the remaining 4 lamps lit once more. The fifth lamp was the lamp of hope.

It is alleged that the world rests on hope. There is all the possibility for us to lose hope in all the sorrows and sufferings in our personal, familial and communal lives. This Sunday brings the light of Christ into our hearts that we continue our journey with His love and Light.

God's blessings,

Fr. Vince

Social Justice @ St Mads

Our Social Justice team @ St Mad's shared all the different works happening across our parish last week. Suzanne mentioned that we do need more helpers to deliver bread and goods out to Hawkesbury Helping Hands, if you are interested in assisting please contact Suzanne or myself Sue Martin sue@kcj.net.au or 0432-716-577.

National Harmony day next Sunday 21st March, Resilience Sydney is calling on us all to hold Neighbourhood gathering, get to know our neighbours. Harmony Day promotes social cohesion and racial harmony, and it is expressed through community participation, inclusiveness, celebrating diversity, respect and belonging. The designated colour for Harmony Day is orange.

Our Be More Caritas ambassador this week is Arsad, an Indonesian farmer, who had no toilet in his home, so he had to walk into the forest to the open defecation area, even at night or in the rain. Around 17 percent of Indonesia's rural population practice open defecation, with many unaware that it contributes to spreading diseases. Arsad's family was often sick and open defecation caused neighbourhood disputes. With the support of Caritas Australia and its partner, Laz Harfa, he took part in hygiene, sanitation and financial management training. He decided to fund the building of a toilet in his house and facilitated others in his neighbourhood to save up for toilets. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2dqWclbMCF0>

Book Club is continuing via Zoom. We are reading a best seller, The Purpose Driven Life by Dr Rick Warren. It is a book of 42 short chapters, with ideally one chapter read daily. Leading us through to find God's purpose for us, we discover a deeper meaning of love, of communion, of reconciliation, of truth. If you would like to join our Zoom group on Tuesday 16 March at 7.30pm send me an email to register. careyanmoylan@hotmail.com

Come join us via Zoom on Tuesday mornings at 10.30am for an hour to pray and discuss the coming Sunday's gospel. If you would like to know more about the gospels, what it can mean to your life, pray with others, or just make new friends, we would love you to join us. For more info and Zoom details, contact Careyanne at careyanmoylan@hotmail.com or 0438 791 813

Women's Prayer Day

Join us for a day of reflection for Lent and reconciliation. We connect with place, spirit, and heart to reconcile our world, refresh our minds and strengthen relationships. Date: 27 March. Where: Annangrove. Time: 9.30 – 1pm and on. Numbers limited. COVID safe. Contact: Careyanne Moylan 0438791813 or careyanmoylan@hotmail.com

Our parish is a community gathered to worship God, bring His light to the world and care for his body. We have responded to this by creating the St Mads Care Group whose mission is "to bring Christ's light through giving hope and service to others." Our aim is to "provide to members of our parish practical support and care such as meals, transport, shopping and assistance". If you are interested in joining us, would be willing to cook an occasional meal for those in need or know of anyone who needs assistance, please contact us through Bernadette, 0418 248 256

St Patrick

Feast Day: 17 March

Legends about Patrick abound; but truth is best served by our seeing two solid qualities in him: He was humble and he was courageous. The determination to accept suffering and success with equal indifference guided the life of God's instrument for winning most of Ireland for Christ.

Details of his life are uncertain. Current research places his dates of birth and death a little later than earlier accounts. Patrick may have been born in Dunbarton, Scotland, Cumberland, England, or in northern Wales. He called himself both a Roman and a Briton. At 16, he and a large number of his father's slaves and vassals were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold.

After six years Patrick escaped, probably to France, and later returned to Britain at the age of 22. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion. He may have studied at Lerins, off the French coast; he spent years at Auxerre, France, and was consecrated bishop at the age of 43. His great desire was to proclaim the good news to the Irish.

In a dream vision it seemed "all the children of Ireland from their mothers' wombs were stretching out their hands" to him. He understood the vision to be a call to do mission work in pagan Ireland. Despite opposition from those who felt his education had been defective, he was sent to carry out the task. He went to the west and north—where the faith had never been preached—obtained the protection of local kings, and made numerous converts.

Because of the island's pagan background, Patrick was emphatic in encouraging widows to remain chaste and young women to consecrate their virginity to Christ. He ordained many priests, divided the country into dioceses, held Church councils, founded several monasteries and continually urged his people to greater holiness in Christ.
