11th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Ez 17: 22—24

2 Cor 5: 6—10

Mark 4: 26—34

The kingdom of God manifests itself in the modest changes in our attitudes and in the little improvements in our behaviour that no one may notice, including ourselves. These are the mighty works of God, not great external accomplishments- Thomas Keating

On this eleventh Sunday of ordinary time, we are reminded of the kingdom of God. Also, we are reminded that the church of Christ is like a tree planted in the world. From the smallest of seed, it becomes the noblest of trees and a physical evidence of God's kingdom which fills the earth. We are therefore encouraged to seek this kingdom with Faith.

The first reading brings us images of a plant or a tree and the message standing out is very simple: God is God and we humans are not God and cannot control our world or anything in it. We have the appearance of control, but the world spins out of control when we humans no longer respect God nor respect the ways of God for us. This has happened over and over in human history and we humans seem incapable of learning the lesson: follow the Lord and life is very good! Abandon the Lord and life becomes unbearable.

The second reading is from the Second Letter to the Corinthians. The small passage that we read today repeats the lesson from the Prophet Ezekiel: "We walk by faith, not by sight." When we walk by faith, we listen to the Word of God and strive to form our lives by that Word. If we walk by sight, we no longer believe in the Lord because the present world tells us that God is not necessary and that life is much better without God. Once again, we are confronted with the truth: With God there is mercy! Without God, all becomes useless and without meaning. We are someone only in relation to God.

In the gospel, Christ uses two parables to describe and invite us to the kingdom of God. The kingdom He invites us to is a simple and peaceful one which grows gradually and steadily. It is open to all who seek it with a sincere heart. God owns, controls, and sustains everything within it. The focus of this parable is not on the work of the farmer who planted the seeds, but on the work of the seed, which obtains its growth from a mysterious source and grows so slowly that one can hardly notice it. In this kingdom, God is present and doing His thing in a manner that we can hardly explain. The only thing we need to do is simply to sow a seed of faith in Christ Jesus, and God himself will be in charge of the rest. Only those who have faith and believe in Christ would be admitted into this kingdom.

Hence, in the second parable, the mustard seed which is the smallest seed refers to our faith as a church and, in relation to the kingdom of God. This is why Christ also tells us that: "If you have faith like a grain of mustard seed...nothing will be impossible for you (Mt 17, 20)." Faith grows and when it does, it achieves great things. As it grows it leads us to Christ and consequently to his kingdom. Also, it opens up rooms for others to come to Christ and the church His body. This is what Christ means in the parable that "The birds of the air come to take shelter under its branches." Hence, when we preach, and witness, the result we achieve is greatly ordinary. For example, a few children may come forward to listen, a youth may present him or herself for a particular sacrament, and a young couple may decide to get married in the church. Also, someone may decide to give up a very old bad habit and another may decide to forgive someone or even ask forgiveness from someone else. These may seem little effort or achievements, but the seed is growing! As our faith grows, the church, the body of Christ grows and more people are drawn into the comfort of God's kingdom. Christ asks us to embrace the faith of the sower: to be willing to plant seeds of kindness and joy wherever and whenever we can in the certain knowledge that it will, in some way, result in a harvest of God's life and love. A church had collected clothing for the poor and homeless. The parish youth group volunteered to sort, fold and pack the clothes. The kids made a game of it, trying on items that caught their imaginations, creating weird costumes, merrily clowning as they worked.

Then one of the kids felt a lump in the pocket of a worn cardigan sweater. He reached in the pocket and found a little bundle. He opened it to find a gold wedding ring. On the paper wrapped around the ring was written in a shaky hand: I have no need of this now. I hope it will help you.

The hilarity in the room was hushed. The ring glowed as it was passed silently and reverently from one young hand to another. No one joked, no one presumed to try on that sacrificial gift for a needy stranger.

Tenderly, the ring was refolded inside the note. It was secured inside the pocket of the sweater with a strong safety pin; the sweater was then packed off with the other clothes. But for the students, the radiance of the ring remained. [Phoebe Ann Lewis, Catholic Digest.] Source: A Sampler Connections)

Our parish is a community gathered to worship God, bring His light to the world and care for his body. We have responded to this by creating the St Mads Care Group whose mission is "to bring Christ's light through giving hope and service to others." Our aim is to "provide to members of our parish practical support and care such as meals, transport, shopping and assistance". If you are interested in joining us, would be willing to cook an occasional meal for those in need or know of anyone who needs assistance, please contact us through Bernadette, 0418 248 256

Craft Morning

After such a long break, we are holding another craft morning/morning tea. Please feel welcome to come along and bring your knitting or stitching or in fact just come along for a chat and a cuppa! There will be a couple of charity projects available to work on if you wish. There will be a couple of sewing machines set up and cutting tables. If you'd like to come along just to be inspired or ask a few questions, please come join us! Morning tea will be provided and we will be observing social distancing. Would love to see you there - any questions please contact Deb Rankin 0409 158 980.

Mrs Black bids a fond farewell to the St Madeleine's community.

After ten years as Principal at St Madeleine's, I bid a fond farewell to this beautiful school and parish community. It has been my privilege and pleasure to have had the opportunity to work with Fr Vince and his vibrant, faith filled community. Mrs Barbara Young takes over from me from the beginning of Term 3.

Barbara is looking forward to working with Father Vince and the Parish in continuing the important work of building God's Kingdom here at Kenthurst. God bless you all.

Jeanette Black

St Anthony of Padua

Feast Day:
13 June

The gospel call to leave everything and follow Christ was the rule of Saint Anthony of Padua's life. Over and over again, God called him to something new in his plan. Every time Anthony responded with renewed zeal and self-sacrificing to serve his Lord Jesus more completely.

His journey as the servant of God began as a very young man when he decided to join the Augustinians in Lisbon, giving up a future of wealth and power to be a servant of God. Later when the bodies of the first Franciscan martyrs went through the Portuguese city where he was stationed, he was again filled with an intense longing to be one of those closest to Jesus himself: those who die for the Good News.

So Anthony entered the Franciscan Order and set out to preach to the Moors. But an illness prevented him from achieving that goal. He went to Italy and was stationed in a small hermitage where he spent most of his time praying, reading the Scriptures and doing menial tasks.

The call of God came again at an ordination where no one was prepared to speak. The humble and obedient Anthony hesitantly accepted the task. The years of searching for Jesus in prayer, of reading sacred Scripture and of serving him in poverty, chastity, and obedience had prepared Anthony to allow the Spirit to use his talents.
