“BE A GIFT OF LOVE AND COMPASSION FOR ONE ANOTHER”

St. Mary Mackillop

Happy Feast Sisters and Brothers! Australia marks the feast of its Patroness Saint Mary Mackillop this Sunday. Mary MacKillop lived in the second half of the nineteenth century, respected and revered for her firm faith in God, her simplicity, commitment to uplift the poor and especially in the field of education despite the hardships she had to endure. It was during her time when devotion to the Blessed Sacrament was the hallmark of the faithful Catholic. Mary loved nothing better than to be in the presence of her Lord, and invited her Sisters to do likewise. It appears that many who knew Mary testified to the many hours she spent in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, and the frequency of her visits, both before and after she became a Sister of St Joseph. What a coincidence that the Gospel of this Sunday talks about the Eucharist, the bread of life!

We have been listening to the discourse on the Eucharist for the past two Sundays. Today's gospel takes us to the synagogue where Jesus reveals himself as the bread of life that came down from heaven to give life to the world. Some of the listeners could not comprehend what Jesus was talking about, because they saw him only as the son of Joseph not as a new Manna, the Son of God. They began to murmur against the teachings of Jesus. I hope that we don't murmur against the Gospel we listen to, rather, we believe in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and its centrality in our daily life, without reducing the Eucharist to a "once a week spiritual vitamin".

The first and second readings set themselves as a perfect context giving meaning to the text of the gospel. When we look at reality, we realize it is not simply the word or action of an event that gives meaning but also the context in which the word or action takes place that defines its meaning. Take for example, the case of a man who walks up to a woman, hugs her and gives her a kiss. That action means one thing if the man is the woman's husband and means something totally different if the man is a stranger to the woman. So too, the text of the gospel is prefigured in the first and second readings.

King Ahab of Israel married a pagan queen Jezebel who tried to import pagan worship into Israel. Elijah the prophet challenged 450 of the pagan god's prophets, defeated them in a public sacrifice-contest and killed all of them. The furious queen sent soldiers to kill the prophet. The prophet was totally despaired and frustrated and he began to flee for his life. He tells God that he cannot go on and he would be better off if God killed him. The Lord however, lets him rest and sends him food and drink. Please note, that God does not just comfort Elijah and say, "Good job, here is some food and drink, now you can retire from your work" Rather, he gives Elijah food precisely so that he can continue to do what the Lord wants. Nourished by the food and drink, Elijah continued his prophetic mission. Similarly, Christ gives himself to us that we must continue to do what God wants us to do in our life despite the hardships, frailty, despair, or frustration we may go through. He gives us the strength to continue our journey even in the midst of loss, pain, stress and hurts. It's amazing what strength can come from fighting on in the face of discouragement and looking to the Master for the spiritual energy to carry on. One of the wise sayings in the Book of Proverbs insists that although good and honest people may fall seven times, they will rise again, whereas the evildoer is overthrown by calamity (Prov 24:16). Faith enables us to keep going on. (Source duly acknowledged)

The second reading presents Jesus as the 'sacrificial offering to God as a fragrant aroma'. Here is a good example of how living the life of Christian love does not involve being a 'holy Joe' but rather is made up of practical and often difficult strategies for seeing and appreciating Christ in others. It is worth embracing the practical details mentioned in this reading, such as, kindness, forgiveness, not harboring grudges and not being spiteful in our relationships. Perhaps, the new Manna (referring to the Eucharist) might also mean consolation and support, generosity, kindness or a constant love for family and friends.... God sends Manna in many forms every day of our lives. Let's take time to recognize the 'daily manna' God rains down on us and recognize 'His Presence' in every person we meet. Let us reach out to the suffering and the poor. The manna we receive challenges us to continue our journey like prophet Elisha - to do what God wants us to do despite the situation we are presently in.

God's blessings,

Fr. Vince

Pope Francis's prayer to Mary during Coronavirus pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of all People, know what we need, and we are sure you will Provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Saint Mary MacKillop Feast Day: 08 Aug

Mary was born in Victoria to Scottish immigrants. She was the eldest of eight children and spent her early years working to support her family. At the age of 24 she dedicated her life to God and took on the name "Mary of the Cross". Along with Fr Julian Tenison-Woods, Mary opened a school in a disused stable in Penola, South Australia. Her vision was to provide education for underprivileged children. Many other women came to join her there, and Mary and Julian founded Australia's first religious order: the Sisters of St Joseph. Mary and the Sisters were committed to serving the poor – to going to where the need was and living amongst those in need. This took Mary all over Australia to many rural areas. Mary faced fierce opposition throughout her life, which at one point culminated in her being excommunicated. In the face of trial, Mary was a model of forgiveness, insisting no ill be spoken of those who wronged her, while also remaining resolute in her convictions. Mary was remarkable as a strong female leader in 19th century Australia. Education in this country is what it is today thanks to her dedication and determination.
