Nothing is lost by peace... Jesus brings us peace and leaves us peace” -Pius XII

One of humankind's natural desires is to live a peaceful life. Ordinarily one would expect that with all the scientific discoveries and inventions in our world, that humanity would enjoy more peace and harmony. Unfortunately, it has not been so. Here come the readings of this Sunday reminding us that Christ is the source of our peace and it has to come from Him through human beings.

In the first reading of today, God in his infinite goodness offers us peace: “Now towards her I send overflowing peace like a river.” When we allow this peace to flow into our hearts and guide our lives, we become fulfilled, satisfied, and our communities and entire world becomes a wonderful place. We are therefore called to be dispensers and agents of this peace. It must flow from, and through, us to others.

Unfortunately, most of us today have missed the mark by assuming that peace comes from material or physical wealth. That is—how many cars, houses, how many clothes, or even how much money one has in his or her account. According to Jürgen Moltmann: “Peace is the blessed joy of a successful life. It is the fullness of life in the presence of the living God. It is the fullness of life in the mutual love of human beings. It is the fullness of life in the community of creation with all other creatures.” This can only flow from Jesus Christ who is the source of all that we are.

St Paul in the second reading underscores that peace comes to our hearts, homes, communities, societies and world only when we work in harmony with the will of God. It comes to all who bear the marks of Christ as Paul did. Any community that welcomes peace welcomes an opportunity for both spiritual and material prosperity.

In today's gospel, Jesus equips the disciples with the message they must bring to our world: Peace to every family and community. The tools of their mission are not the accessories they carry with them, nor in what they believe are essentials for their travels, nor in their networking capabilities (by then modern technology was unknown) but only one security: humble, simple trust. In truth, the outcome of their mission was fantastic and they were overwhelmed at the beautiful changes in the lives of the people and community (Sources duly acknowledged)

As we listen to Jesus, He commissions us with the mission of bringing peace to people. Again, reliance on the post modern communication tools is not going to be that effective. It is something that radiates itself, in other words, it is contagious. If we have peace, it must affect others positively. Therefore, let us pray like Francis of Assisi: “Lord, make me an instrument of your peace, where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.”

There was once a little boy who wanted to meet God. He figured it would be a long journey, so he filled his backpack with Twinkies and a six-pack of root beer. And then he set off.

When he had gone about three blocks, he met an elderly woman. She was sitting in the park quietly, just watching the pigeons. The boy sat down next to her on the bench and opened his backpack. He was about to take a drink from his first root beer when he noticed that the lady looked hungry, so he offered her a Twinkie. She gratefully accepted it and smiled at him. Her smile was so wonderful that the little boy wanted to see it again, so he offered her a root beer. Once again she smiled. The boy was delighted. They sat there all afternoon eating and smiling, never saying a word. As it grew late, the boy got up to leave, but before he had gone a few steps, he turned to the woman and gave her a hug. She gave him the biggest smile ever.

When the boy opened the door to his own house a short time later, his mother was surprised by the look of happiness on his face. “What did you do today?” she asked. “I had lunch with God.” But before his mother could respond, he continued. “You know what? She's got the most beautiful smile I've ever seen!”

About the same time, the old woman returned to her home. Her son was stunned by the rare smile on her face. “Mom, what happened that brought such a smile to your face?” “I ate Twinkies in the park with God.” But before her son could respond, she continued. “You know, he's much younger than I expected.” [Author unknown.]

In our words and deeds of caring love for others, we bring the peace of God into every home and heart.

God's blessings
Fr. Vince

Blessed Emmanuel Ruiz & Companions' Story (1804-1860)

Feast Day: 7 July

Not much is known of the early life of Emmanuel Ruiz, but details of his heroic death in defense of the faith have come down to us.

Born of humble parents in Santander, Spain, he became a Franciscan priest and served as a missionary in Damascus. This was at a time when anti-Christian riots shook Syria and thousands lost their lives in just a short time.

Among these were Emmanuel, superior of the Franciscan convent, seven other friars, and three laymen. When a menacing crowd came looking for the men, they refused to renounce their faith and become Muslims. The men were subjected to horrible tortures before their martyrdom.

Emmanuel, his brother Franciscans and the three Maronite laymen were beatified by Pope Pius XI in 1926.
