BE ATTENTIVE TO THE DAY TO DAY 'EPIPHANY' MOMENTS

Happy Feast to every one of you!

There was once a monastery that had come upon hard times. Once it was filled with young monks and its great church resounded with the singing of God's praise, but now it was almost deserted, with a handful of elderly brothers shuffling through the cloister struggling to pray and work. On the edge of the monastery woods an old rabbi had built a little hut. He would go there from time to time to fast and pray. Whenever the venerable and wise rabbi was there, the monks felt blessed by his presence.

One day the abbot of the monastery went to visit the rabbi to seek his counsel. The rabbi welcomed him warmly. First, the two prayed silently together; then the rabbi made tea for his guest. As he set the cups on the table, the rabbi said to the abbot, "You and your brothers are serving God with heavy hearts. You have come to ask a lesson from me. Very well. I will give you a teaching — but you can only repeat it once. After that, no one must ever say it aloud again." The rabbi leaned in and looked straight into the eyes of the abbot. "The Messiah is among you," the rabbi said. "He lives among you now."

The Messiah
Is one of YOU!

The abbot did not know what to say; he left the rabbi's hut without a word. The next morning, the abbot called his brothers together. He told them he had received a teaching from the rabbi who walks in the woods — but warned that the teaching was to be spoken once and then never said again. The abbot then looked at each of his brothers and said, "The rabbi said that one of us is the Messiah." The monks were stunned by the abbot's words. What could this mean? they asked themselves. Is Brother John the Messiah? Or Father Matthew? Or Brother Thomas? Could I be the Messiah? They were all puzzled — and unsettled — by the rabbi's teaching, but faithfully obeyed the abbot's instructions that it never be mentioned again.

As time went by, the monks began to treat one another with a special reverence. There was a gentle, peaceful quality about them that was hard to describe but easy to notice. The few visitors to the monastery found themselves deeply moved by the life of the community. Before long, people were coming from miles around to be nourished by the prayer of the monks. More and more brothers joined the community. As the monastery began to rebuild, the joy of their prayer once again resounded through their church — and hearts. The old rabbi was never seen again — but the old monks, who had taken his teaching to heart, forever felt his presence. [Source unknown.]

"The Messiah lives among you" — Epiphany celebrates that reality in all our lives: that God's Christ is present among us in our love for one another, in the mercy and justice we work for, in the forgiveness we extend and accept. Our lives are filled with "epiphanies": moments of awareness and understanding, discoveries of abilities and potential, realizations of the love of God in our lives. In this New Year, may we seek to find the Messiah in our midst, following the star of God's reconciliation and justice, enabling us to behold Emmanuel — "God with us"— in every experience of charity, consolation and forgiveness, whether given or received. The obligation of looking after each other and especially the vulnerable, the weak, the strangers, the refugees and the children threatened by violence from various corners arises from the epiphany of the divine image in ourselves and through our encounters with the incarnate Word in each other. (Thanks to A Sampler Connections)

God's blessings

“Love is the light — and in the end, the only light — that can always illuminate a world grown dim and give us the courage needed to keep living and working. Love is possible, and we are able to practice it because we are created in the image of God.”
the late Pope Benedict XVI - Deus Caritas Est

A certain Mark Twain put a dog and a cat in a cage together as an experiment, to see if they could get along. They did. So he put in a bird, pig and goat. They, too, got along fine after a few adjustments. Then he put in a Baptist, a Presbyterian, and a Catholic, and the hell broke loose. Mark Twain did not even bother putting together a Christian, a Muslim, and a Hindu. That was unthinkable in his days. In today's world, however, it has become obvious that Christians live in the same cage, in the same city, in the same street, in the same world, with people of other religions. It is in this context, someone has a dream of the abolition of all religions in the world and the emergence of a Global Spirituality! The dream of this individual can be legitimized on the basis of what is happening around the world in the name of God and religion: Bloody wars, violence, and terrorism. Each religion wants to limit God to its own bounds and traditions forgetting the truth of the absoluteness of God. The Feast of Epiphany opens our eyes to the truth that God belongs to all and He reveals Himself to all irrespective of any difference or distinction.

Joseph Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI)

Deceased: 31 December 2022

Joseph Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI) was born on 16 April 1927 in Markt am Inn, Germany. His father, a police officer, came from a traditional family of farmers from Lower Bavaria. From 1946 to 1951, he studied philosophy and theology at the University of Munich and at the higher school in Freising. Together with his brother Georg, he was ordained a priest on 29 June 1951 in the Cathedral at Freising. Beginning in 1969, he was a professor of dogmatic theology and of the history of dogma at the University of Regensburg, where he eventually became Dean and Vice-Rector. From 1962 to 1965 he was present during all four sessions of the Second Vatican Council as a chief theological advisor to the Archbishop of Cologne, Cardinal Josef Frings. Fr Ratzinger's important and useful experience as a priest and an "expert" at the Second Vatican Council was immensely valuable and fundamental to his life. He lived out this experience as confirmation of his own vocation, which he defined as "theological". On 24 March 1977, Pope Paul VI appointed him Archbishop of München und Freising (Munich and Freising). He was ordained a Bishop on 28 May that same year and was the first diocesan priest in 80 years to take on the pastoral governance of this large Bavarian Diocese. He chose as his episcopal motto: "Fellow Worker in the Truth" (cf. III Jn 1: 8). He was created and proclaimed Cardinal by Pope Paul VI in the Consistory of 27 June 1977, of the Titles of the Suburbicarian Church of Velletri-Segni (5 April 1993) and Suburbicarian Church of Ostia (30 November 2002). On 25 November 1981 he was appointed by Pope John Paul II as Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. He also became President of the Biblical Commission and of the Pontifical International Theological Commission. His role as President of the Commission for Drafting the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the six years of intense work (1986-92) behind its preparation are one of his many outstanding achievements. On Tuesday, 19 April [2005], Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger was elected the 265th Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church, selecting the name Benedict XVI.
