A LITTLE BIT OF MERCY MAKES THE WORLD LESS COLD AND MORE JUST – Pope Francis

A priest was teaching on the topic of love. He asked the question to his listeners: "Who among you here do not have enemies?" An old man raised his hand. The priest was delighted. "Look at him! Such a perfect example of love! Tell us. What did you do?" The old man said, "Nothing. I have no more enemies because they are all dead."

Mark Twain once said this about the Bible: "I have no problem with those parts of the Bible I don't understand. It's those parts of the Bible I do understand that gives me fits." I wonder if the readings of this Sunday give us fits and make us uncomfortable.

Be holy and be perfect is the resounding call of the readings. The first reading gives us the way to share God's holiness through loving our neighbors as ourselves.

The responsorial psalm challenges us to be like our God, kind, merciful and forgiving. The second reading calls to be holy as we are the temples of the Holy Spirit.

In the gospel Jesus condemns even the mild form of 'the tribal law of retaliation'. Instead of the restricted retaliation allowed by Moses, Jesus gives his new law of love, grace, forgiveness, reconciliation and no retaliation. For Jesus, retaliation, or even limited vengeance, has no place in the Christian life. Jesus proposes to overwhelm the wrongdoer by incredible generosity; to treat the enemies with the same justice as to our neighbours. The neighbours here do not mean our kith and kin... relatives and friends... Jesus enlarges the concept of neighbour to the enemies, the wrongdoers, the bad influence etc. Is it possible?

As the media bear witness every day, retaliation is often widely disproportionate. Family homes are demolished, whole villages punished for one individual's transgression. Men and women murder their children to get even with their estranged spouse. Innocent people are victimized in the process of retaliation through vengeance, violence and war and moreover by building walls among the people.

I believe Jesus knows that we can't be perfect and holy one hundred percent... and so he has set holiness, forgiving love as the standard goal that we could reach for. Holiness could mean set apart... it is also defined as goodness whereby the spark of divinity is shining through us...

We need to understand also that Jesus is not saying that we should allow ourselves to be abused. Abuse is never an acceptable thing. However, we don't allow ourselves to wallow in revenge or anger or get back at people by being abusive ourselves. Martin Luther King got it right when he preached about 'active non-resistance'; others like Nelson Mandela and Gandhi also follow Christ's mandate. We can overcome it by doing good to others and wearing them down that way. It may appear to be impractical, non-sense for many of us but that's the way Jesus lived by and that's the road map of our life as given by Him.

A kindergarten teacher decided to let her class play a game. The teacher told each child in the class to bring along a plastic bag containing a few potatoes. Each potato will be given a name of a person that the child hates. So the number of potatoes that a child will put in his/her plastic bag will depend on the number of people he/she hates. So, when the day came, each child brought some potatoes with the name of the people he/she hated. Some had 2 potatoes; some 3 while some up to 5 potatoes. The teacher then told the children to carry with them the potatoes in the plastic bag wherever they go (even to the toilet) for 1 week.

Days after days passed by, and the children started to complain due to the unpleasant smell let out by the rotten potatoes. Besides, those having 5 potatoes also had to carry heavier bags. After 1 week, the children were relieved because the game had finally ended....

The teacher asked: "How did you feel while carrying the potatoes with you for 1 week?". The children let out their frustrations and started complaining of the trouble that they had to go through having to carry the heavy and smelly potatoes wherever they went. [short story]

Then the teacher told them the hidden meaning behind the game. The teacher said: "This is exactly the situation when you carry your hatred for somebody inside your heart. The stench of hatred will contaminate your heart and you will carry it with you wherever you go. If you cannot tolerate the smell of rotten potatoes for just 1 week, can you imagine what is it like to have the stench of hatred in your heart for your lifetime???"

This is a great metaphor for the price we pay for keeping our pain and heavy negativity! Too often we think of forgiveness as a gift to the other person, and it clearly is for ourselves!

Being a great psychologist and psychiatrist, Jesus gives us the medicine of naming and shaming the wrongdoers by means of being generous to them in love and forgiveness always with Justice. Are we willing to go beyond the rules, boundaries and the parameters set by most of the people? (Sources duly acknowledged)

God's blessings, Fr. Vince

St Peter Damian

Feast Day:

21 February 2023

Maybe because he was orphaned and had been treated shabbily by one of his brothers, Peter Damian was very good to the poor. It was the ordinary thing for him to have a poor person or two with him at table and he liked to minister personally to their needs. Peter escaped poverty and the neglect of his own brother when his other brother, who was archpriest of Ravenna, took him under his wing. His brother sent him to good schools and Peter became a professor. Soon, he decided to leave his teaching and give himself completely to prayer with the Benedictines of the reform of Saint Romuald at Fonte Avellana. They lived two monks to a hermitage. Peter was so eager to pray and slept so little that he soon suffered from severe insomnia. He found he had to use some prudence in taking care of himself. When he was not praying, he studied the Bible. The abbot commanded that when he died Peter should succeed him. Abbot Peter founded five other hermitages. Finally, Pope Stephen IX made Peter the cardinal-bishop of Ostia. He worked hard to wipe out simony—the buying of church offices—and encouraged his priests to observe celibacy and urged even the diocesan clergy to live together and maintain scheduled prayer and religious observance. He asked often to be allowed to retire as cardinal-bishop of Ostia, and finally Pope Alexander II consented. Peter was happy to become once again just a monk, but he was still called to serve as a papal legate. When returning from such an assignment in Ravenna, he was overcome by a fever. With the monks gathered around him saying the Divine Office, he died on February 22, 1072. In 1828, he was declared a Doctor of the Church

Illiteracy is evident in the general population regarding Christianity, religion more generally, and the Bible. It is into this pool of ignorance that Greg Sheridan has waded with his new book, "Christians: The Urgent Case of Jesus in the World." The book is divided into two parts. The first is called 'Jesus and his Friends', the second, 'Christians and their new Worlds.' The first looks more specifically at the Gospels and the key characters therein and well as the doctrinal significance that emerges from them; the second concerns Christians today, including several interviews and profiles of Christians in Australia today. This structure, succeeds combining a more intellectual discussion in part 1, with a more personal reflection in part two. He argues persuasively for the historicity and the significance of the Gospels.

Lent is one of the five seasons of the Catholic liturgical calendar, along with Advent, Christmas, Easter, and Ordinary Time. It precedes Easter and is a solemn period centred on prayer, fasting and almsgiving. It is a special time of reconnecting with or deepening our faith through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Prayer reflections, Stations of the Cross, fasting, sharing our blessings with the less fortunate through Caritas Australia etc. May I encourage our parish and school communities to be a part of various programmes whereby we renew our baptismal commitment to God and His Kingdom in our community.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS                      Every Friday 7 pm

Palm Sunday recalls an event in the Christian Scripture (The New Testament) of Jesus entering into Jerusalem and being greeted by the people waving palm branches. For Christians, it is a reminder of the welcoming of Jesus into our hearts and of our willingness to follow him.

HOLY THURSDAY

6 April 7pm followed by Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper of Jesus Christ, when he established the sacrament of Holy Communion prior to his arrest and crucifixion. It also commemorates His institution of the priesthood. The Last Supper was the final meal Jesus shared with his Disciples in Jerusalem.

GOOD FRIDAY

Holy Saturday, also called Easter Vigil, Christian religious observance that ends the Lenten season, falling on the day before Easter Sunday. It is a beautiful celebration when we renew our baptismal promises and rejuvenate our faith in the living God.

EASTER

9 April Sunday 8am, 10am and 5.30pm Mass

Easter is the victory of Jesus over death and it gives us hope in the midst of difficulties and uncertainties of life.
