22nd November 2026 | CHRIST THE KING Year A

He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another

Ezek 34:11-12, 15-17 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28 Mt 25:31-46

GOSPEL Matthew 25: 31-46 (abbreviated)
Jesus said to his disciples, 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.'

Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you did it to me.'

Then he will say to those on his left. 'I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.'

COMMENTARY
In the First Reading the prophet Ezekiel describes how the Lord will seek us out when we are lost. He will rescue, heal, care and feed us. Psalm 23 affirms this prophecy. The Lord leads us to lush pastures, revives and anoints us with love. He desires that we dwell with him forever. In the letter to the Corinthians (Second Reading) Paul teaches that Christ has overcome all things, even death. In Christ we are fully alive. Christ is all, and Christ is in all. In the Gospel, Jesus gives his disciples a powerful teaching about the nature of his kingship. Christ our King is to be found in the stranger, the outcast, the weak and the vulnerable. We will be judged by how we treat these among us.

This week, let us pray for the grace to become compassionate shepherds of one another, reverencing the presence of Christ within us, and serving Christ in the most vulnerable amongst us.

Social Justice @ St Mad's

From Common Grace: As we approach Christmas, we reflect on how Jesus' entry into our world, was the most profound and beautiful disruption, the cosmos has ever known. Common Grace has a daily reflection in Advent exploring how God draws near to disrupt the ordinary - bringing hope, healing, justice and love into our fractured world. For consideration January 26 is a significant date for many Australians. It is important to approach this date with respect and understanding for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in your workplace, community and wider network. For many First Nations Australians, this day is not a celebration, but a reminder of colonisation and the ongoing impacts still experienced by communities across the country.
